

Easter traditions

AUTHORS: PATRICIA AND SOPHIE

Decorating Easter eggs is one of the most famous traditions in Poland. Traditionally, for painting eggs, the whole family is seated at the table. The painted eggs are celebrated together with the holy priest in the church, then they can be eaten on Holy Sunday.

Easter Monday

Easter Monday is the second day of Easter holiday. On this day, people splash water on each other. Splashing water symbolizes the end of winter.

On this day we also wish each other happy Easter day.

Easter Monday is a very happy day!

Fun facts:

- Easter is the most important Christian holiday,
- The largest chocolate egg was produced in Italy, it weighed more than 7 tons and it was 10 meters high,
- It is said that 90 million chocolate bunnies are produced worldwide every year for Easter.
